Merry Christmas

Editor's Letter

From time to time, in place of the usual damp, dull winter day, we have colder days bedecked with blue skies and fluffy white, innocent clouds. Looking up, it can almost be summer again.

On one such afternoon recently, I was taking a walk, with my daughter and our dogs, down Gorsey Lane, on the outskirts of Hightown. It's a peaceful spot, surrounded by fields and wildlife. We were enjoying the quiet moment and the sun on our backs when, to our great surprise, out of the nearby bushes, there arose a vast number of starlings! Very quickly, we were enveloped in their murmuration, flocking and flying around us in perfect formation. It almost felt as if we were becoming a part of the landscape, a part of the wildlife. Their squadron wound its way around us several times, claiming us as two of their own, and then, as quickly as they had arisen, they returned to their bushes to silently observe us. To see a murmuration is a sight not to be forgotten in a hurry, but to become a part of one, as it felt to us that day, is an experience I will never forget.

For me, one of the greatest pleasures of living 'twixt countryside and coast, is the way nature invites us to become part of the natural cycle of the seasons. To receive the invitation we have to set aside a little time, outside of our work or family duties. The benefits of nature immersion are manifold.

The same is true of setting a little time aside for God each day. No prayers are necessary, just an ability, or the discipline, to be still and a desire to be in His presence. He will do the rest.

Wishing you all a wonderful Christmas and a peaceful year ahead,
Colette.

Dear Friends,

Sunday 3rd December is Advent Sunday this year, and we begin a time of expectant waiting and preparation for the birth, the Nativity, of Jesus on Christmas Day. Advent is the first season of the Church year.

The word 'Advent' comes from the Latin 'adventus', which means 'coming' or 'arrival' or 'presence'.

In Church we will mark each Sunday in Advent by lighting a candle on our Advent Wreath, the radiance getting brighter each week, until we light the central candle, The Christ Candle, on Christmas Day.

This Advent let us reflect on how we can prepare our hearts and our homes for Christ's birth.

There is so much pressure on getting Christmas 'just right', isn't there? The first Christmas was special, amazing, awesome and wonderful, but it was also very simple. It can be so easy to lose the true meaning of Christmas.

There is a beautiful Christmas Worship song by Ian White... 'Crackers and Turkeys'

"Crackers and turkeys and pudding and cream,
Toys in the windows that I've never seen,
This is the Christmas that everyone sees,
But Christmas means more to me.
It's somebody's birthday I won't forget,
As I open the things that I get.
I'll remember the inn, and stable so bare,
And Jesus who once lay there."

Let's remember what we are celebrating. What does Christmas really mean to you? Jesus is the reason for the season!

I love the Carol, 'O Come All Ye Faithful', and especially the refrain, 'O come, let us adore Him, Christ the Lord'.

There are many opportunities to come and adore Him at St. Stephen's during Advent, Christmas and beyond, right into the New Year. These are listed elsewhere in our magazine. You will always be very welcome here.

Peace and Joy!

With every blessing for the New Year!

Keith

Letter From Bishop John, Bishop of Liverpool

This will be my first Christmas among you in Liverpool and I am looking forward to experiencing how you do Christmas in Liverpool. Over many years in many places, I notice how churches build their own fabulous traditions around Advent and Christmas and I am excited to see how you mark this great festival.

But I am reminded that in our extravaganza and paraphernalia of festivities, we can lose sight of the harsh realities of the nativity story: a stable, the cold night, the Inn's closed door, refugees fleeing to Egypt, the brutal slaughter of the innocent.

These harsh realities mirror the harsh realities of the world we live in. We see war, natural disasters, chronic anxiety, and poverty all around us. God embraced this world when sending Jesus at Christmas and God asks us as a church, who face challenges of our own, to lift our heads and show love to the world. To be encouraged by the nativity story and encourage others because of it.

As in previous years, the Church of England tries to come together with a campaign for Advent and Christmas. This year's theme – Follow the Star: Join the Song – highlights how singing can help draw us closer to God and each other through the journey from Advent to Epiphany. I encourage you to use their resources and take part in their invitation to sing the First Nowell as part of a way of bringing people to church.

And then together we are singing a song of God's hope for God's world. A hope that can only come through our belief in Jesus and Jesus' story from Christmas to Easter.

So sing this song of hope as you celebrate Christmas in your place. And renew in yourself a commitment to being that light of hope in God's world.

Have a blessed, peaceful, hope-filled Christmas.

Wills and Powers of Attorney are powerful legal documents. The skill in preparing the right document for your circumstances comes from knowing to ask the right questions coupled with the experience and expertise to draft it correctly; and thereafter ensuring that the formalities of finalising the document are properly adhered to. If you cut corners there is a risk that your loved ones will only discover the problems when it is too late - causing them stress, heartache and unnecessary financial loss.

Don't leave it to chance.

Make sure you only use an individual who personally is:

- a qualified professional
- a dedicated specialist
- highly experienced
- formally regulated by a recognised legal body
- insured as per regulatory requirements
- accredited member of Solicitors for the Elderly and STEP

Elizabeth Foggin TEP, Solicitor at Autumn Years Law is your local expert in:

- Wills & Trusts
- Court of Protection/ Deputyship
- Lifetime & Inheritance Tax Planning
- Lasting Powers of Attorney
- Probate & Estate Administration
- Elderly client services

Our friendly approach is both compassionate yet professional and as a company we are committed to providing you with high quality legal advice. Free home/hospital visits are available if you have physical difficulties in being able to come to us.
